This exhibition tells the rich and complex history of one of the world's oldest Jewish communities, which dates back nearly 2,700 years. Archaeological artifacts, illuminated manuscripts, Judaica, textiles, musical instruments, paintings, photographs, videos, and more highlight the complex and fascinating story of Iranian Jews and the beauty of Judeo-Persian traditions.

This exhibition was created and organized by:

Beit Hatfutsot – The Museum of the Jewish People, Tel Aviv, Israel.

It is co-presented in New York by Yeshiva University Museum, the American Sephardi Federation, and the Center for Jewish History.
